

Faculty Group Supervision (Residential)

Students will participate in weekly group supervision sessions in a classroom format. Faculty group supervision involves working with a member of the counseling faculty working with two or more students using a tutorial and mentoring form of instruction. Practicum/internship students meet every week and count class time towards faculty group supervision.

- Supervision occurs each week over the entire course of the A-term semester.