MESSAGE from THE DEAN

Congratulations, graduates! We are thankful for your accomplishments, the Lord's good providence in your lives, and the opportunity to have worked with you the last few years as you have pursued your dreams.

You have acquired the knowledge, values, and skills to impact the world for Jesus Christ, and we trust you will be faithful servants of our Savior. Christ calls us to lives of faith and service. Before His crucifixion, He challenged the disciples to set aside quests for power and petty ambition and see themselves, instead, as servants. As you begin your careers and follow your dreams, think of ways that you can be servants of the Lord.
